

انا صرهم حتى لو

.....

AYMAN NASSER

Researcher & Human Rights Defender
Prisoners' Rights Activist Behind Bars

Ayman Nasser is a researcher for Addameer Prisoner Support and Human Rights Organization, an activist for prisoners' rights, and a member of Safa, his home village, municipal council. Ayman endured 51 days of interrogation, often lasting for more than 20 hours at a time. Ayman's charges all revolve around his activity in human rights defense, including encouraging the support of Palestinian prisoners, participating in the annual Prisoner's Day on 17 April in 2011 and 2012, and participating in solidarity activities during hunger strikes (both collective hunger strikes and individual hunger strikes), and attending a festival anniversary of Martyr Abu Ali Mustafa on 27 August 2012.