

NIDAL ABU AKER

Palestinian journalist imprisoned by Israel

Nidal Abu Aker has been on hunger strike since 20 August - held in solitary confinement, denied cold water, fresh air and medical treatment. He is imprisoned without charge or trial under Israel's practice of "administrative detention," along with hundreds of other Palestinians. He is on hunger strike with fellow detainees in the "Battle of Breaking the Chains" - demanding an end to administrative detention and freedom for the detainees.

END ADMINISTRATIVE DETENTION!
FREEDOM NOW!
