

MUNIR ABU SHARAR

Palestinian imprisoned without charge or trial

Munir Abu Sharar, a Palestinian public worker for Al-Khalil municipality, has been on hunger strike since August 20. Held in solitary confinement, denied cold water and fresh air, he is imprisoned without charge or trial under Israel's practice of "administrative detention," along with hundreds of other Palestinians. He is on hunger strike with fellow detainees in the "Battle of Breaking the Chains" - demanding an end to administrative detention and freedom for the detainees.

END ADMINISTRATIVE DETENTION!
FREEDOM NOW!
